Patient and Clinic Rights and Responsibilities

Patient Name: _____ DOB: _____ / _____ / _____

Welcome to the center. Our goal is to provide quality healthcare to people in this community, regardless of their ability to pay. As a patient, you have rights and responsibilities. The center also has rights and responsibilities. We want you to understand these rights and responsibilities so you can help us provide better healthcare for you. Please read and sign this statement and ask us questions you might have.

Human Rights

You have the right to be treated with respect, regardless of race, color, marital status, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental handicap / disability, age, veteran status, or other grounds as applicable federal, state and local laws or regulations.

Payment For Services

- You are responsible for giving staff accurate information about your present financial status and any changes in your financial status. The staff need this information to decide how much to charge you and / or so they can bill private insurance, Medicaid, Medicare, or other benefits for which you may be eligible. If your income is less than the federal poverty guidelines, you are charged a discounted fee.
- You have a right to receive explanations of the centers bill. You must pay, or arrange to pay, all agreed fees for medical services, with the exception of dental services, which are provided on a pre-paid basis. If you cannot pay right away, please let staff know so they can provide care for you now and work out a payment plan.
- Federal law prohibits the center from denying you primary healthcare services which are medically necessary solely because you cannot pay for these services.

Privacy

You have a right to have your interviews, examinations, and treatment in privacy. Your medical records are also private. Only legally authorized persons may see your medical records unless you request in writing for us to show them to, or copy them for, someone else. In certain circumstances, the center may be required to report to the Texas Department of State Health Services regarding your health condition or disease status. A complete discussion of your privacy rights is given to you along with this document and is named the center's Notice of Privacy Practices. Staff request you acknowledge your receipt of our Notice of Privacy Practices. The Notice of Privacy Practices sets forth the ways in which your medical records are used or disclosed by the center and the rights granted to you under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

Healthcare

- You are responsible for providing the center complete and current information about your health or illness, so that we can provide proper healthcare. You have a right, and are encouraged, to participate in decisions about your treatment.
- You have a right to information and explanations in the language you normally speak and in words you understand. You have a right to information about your health or illness, treatment plan, including the nature of your treatment; its expected benefits; its inherent risks and hazards (and the consequences of refusing treatment); the reasonable alternatives, if any (and their risks and benefits; and the expected outcome, if known. This information is called obtaining your informed consent.
- You have the right to receive information regarding “Advance Directives”. If you do not wish to receive this information, or if it is not medically advisable to share that information with you, we provide it to your legally authorized representative.
- You are responsible for appropriate use of center services, which includes the following staff instructions, making and keeping scheduled appointments, and requesting a “walk in” appointment only when you are ill. Center professionals may not be able to see you unless you have an appointment. If you are unable to follow instructions from the staff, please tell them so they can help you.
- If you are an adult, you have the right to refuse treatment or procedures to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations. In this regard, you have the right to be informed of the risks, hazards, and consequences of your refusing treatment or procedures. Your receipt of this information is necessary so that your refusal will be “informed”. You are responsible for the consequences and outcomes of treatment or procedures. If you refuse treatment or procedures that healthcare providers believe is in your best interest, you may be asked to sign a Refusal to Permit Medical Treatment or Services form or Against Medical Advice form (as appropriate).
- You have a right to healthcare and treatment that is responsible for your condition and within our capability, however, the center is not an emergency care facility. You have a right to be transferred or referred to another facility for services that the center cannot provide. The center does not pay for services you receive from another healthcare provider.
- If you are in pain, you have a right to receive an appropriate assessment and pain management, as necessary.

Center Rules

- You have a right to receive information on how to appropriately use the center’s services. You are responsible for using the center’s services in an appropriate manner. If you have any questions, please ask us.
- You are responsible to keep your scheduled appointments. Missed scheduled appointments cause delay in treating other patients. If you do not keep scheduled appointments, you may be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to the center’s policies and procedures.

Complaints

- If you are not satisfied with our services, please tell us. We want suggestions so we can improve our services. Staff will tell you how to file complaints. If you are not satisfied with how the staff handles your complaint, you may complain to the center's Board of Directors.
- If you make a complaint, no center representative will punish, discriminate, or retaliate against you for filing a complaint, and the center will continue to provide you services.

Termination

If the center decides we must stop treating you as a patient, you have a right to advance written notice explaining the reason for the decision, and you will be given thirty (30) days to find other healthcare services. However, the center can decide to stop treating you immediately, and without written notice, if you have created a threat to the safety of the staff and / or other patients. You have a right to receive a copy of the center's Termination of the Patient and Center Relationship Policy and Procedure.

Reasons for which we may stop seeing you include:

- Failure to obey center rules and policies, such as keeping scheduled appointments;
- Intentional failure to accurately report your financial status;
- Intentional failure to report accurate information concerning your health or illness;
- Intentional failure to follow healthcare program, such as instructions about taking medications, personal health practices, or follow up appointments, as recommended by your healthcare provider(s), and / or
- Creating a threat to the safety of the staff and / or other patients.

Appeals

If the center has given you notice of termination of the patient and center relationship, you have the right to appeal the decision to the Board. Unless you have a medical emergency, we will not continue to see you as a patient while you are appealing the decision.
